@MayorOfLA

The Los Angeles Unified Homelessness Response Center (UHRC) co-locates leadership from critical City departments, LAHSA, and other partners in the same room to respond to the street-based homelessness crisis together, in real-time, leading with services and engagement to bring people indoors, grounded in a unified incident command structure.

Overview

- UHRC launched April 30, 2018
- Open M-F; 7am – 5pm (will transition to 24/7 within several months)
- Located inside the City's EOC
- Comprised of City departments that impact homelessness
- Fosters outreach-focused interdepartmental collaboration

Overview

Partners

The mission of the UHRC is to implement A Bridge Home outreach, engagement, and cleanup protocols and provide a timely, effective, and coordinated street-level response to unsheltered homelessness across the City.

Mission

HIGHER

Help bring everyone indoors.

Improve communication and collaboration between and among the City, LAHSA, other government and private partners, and persons with lived experience in a larger coordinated street-based response to unsheltered homelessness.

Guide efforts to balance the rights, responsibilities, and needs of both the unhoused and housed communities across Los Angeles.

Heighten actions to increase public health and safety for everyone.

Expand the City's strategies for removing trash and keeping public areas clean and accessible.

Reaffirm each person's humanity by addressing their trauma from experiencing homelessness.

Goals

Or maybe...

REACH
